Mercy School of Nursing

1921 Vail Avenue

Dedication

We meet many people as we journey thru life. There are those we choose to remember and those we hope to forget. This dedication however is to a woman much too special to us to forget. The transition from spoon-fed Freshman to an upperclassman was difficult at best. She made it easier. Her love of the profession and caring attitude were obvious from the start. She took us under her wing and with understanding of our needs and a passion for our success she made us fly. Our senior year began and we were faced with one of the biggest challenges of all: Critical Care Nursing. With trembling knees and pallored faces, we accepted the challenge. This instructor was as tough as the material she taught but with her humor, her wit, and her neverending encouraging words we made it through. She not only touched our lives but also our hearts.

We still would have made it though, but it certainly wouldn't have been as much fun. We the Class of 1990 proudly dedicate the Mercilite to our "stressed out sweetie," Mrs. Peggy Trueman.

It's hard to believe three years have past. As graduation approaches at long last. Some of us have gone and some remain. But none of us remain the same. Ellen, the one I'll call sarcasm queen You're the sister I never had, know what I mean? And then there's Diane the athletic one. You may be a goober but you're certainly fun. And Melinda so sweet she's sugar laden I love you even if you won't take me to Maiden. And Stephanie I promise we'll go to DC But sorry no Barfy not even Hushpuppy. And LeighAnn From Buford, with the gorgeous smile I know that you'll make it that extra mile. Little miss Candy what a great nurse you'll be what a shame it is though that you can't see. Fartblossom Leah, what more can I say. I'll be there with flatus on your wedding day.

Christy, best wishes with your new life. Be a caring nurse and a thoughtful wife. The work was hard, there was no easy way But the friends I've made, friends they'll stay.

Candace Marie Brown

I have no yesterdays; time took them away. Tomorrow may not be, but I have today.

US Together We've stood, walked ran, Or crawled towards our common goal. Brought together we stay together holding tightly to one another Through sunshine & rain, Smiles & shared tears, We'll travel on, hand in hand.

Time In A Bottle If I could save time in a bottle The first thing that I'd like to do Is to save everyday till eternity passes away Just to spend them with you. If I could make days last forever. If words could make wishes come true I'd save every day like a treasure, and then Again I would spend them with you. But, there never seems to be enough time To do the things we want to do Once we find them I've looked around enough to know That you're the one I want to go through time with If I had a box just for wishes And dreams that had never come true The box would be empty Except for the memory of how they were answered by you. But there never seems to be enough time To do the things we want to do Over we find them I've looked around enough to know That you're the one I want to go through time with.

There are always two sides, the good and the bad, The dark and the light, the sad and the glad But in looking back over the good things we've had and in counting our blessings we find when we're through We've no reason at all to complain or be blue So thank God for good things He has already done And be grateful to Him for the battle's you've won, And know that the same God who helped you before Is ready and will to help you once more. Then with faith in your heart reach out for God's Hand And accept what He sends, though you can't understand For Our Father in Heaven always knows what is And if you trust in His wisdom your life will be blest, For always remember that whatever betide you, You are never alone for God is beside you.

Leigh Ann Funderburk

Just believe You can be what you want to be And do what you want to do There's nothing that's too difficult Or impossible for you! The stars are just a step away And the goals you would achieve Are at your very fingertips, If you will just believe!

The best and most beautiful things in life the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt by the heart.

Do not walk ahead of me. I will not follow. Do not walk behind me. I shall not lead. Just walk beside me and be my Friend.

To You My Dear Friends We began together scared and naive Feeling our way blindly We held tightly to each other because it's all we had We learned from our mistakes and always came out on top. We encouraged each other even when others wouldn't We rejoiced on our accomplishments when they pointed out our failures We gained knowledge skill, friendship and the ability to take pride in ourselves. We know now that we don't fail unless we fail ourselves We Had our doubts but continued the struggle. We are few in number but mighty in strength Let us hold our heads high and know that we have succeeded And as we turn to go our separate ways. I wish you all the best We have all grown to be apart of each other and I will always carry each one of you in my heart forever.

LeighAnn Funderburke, You have always wanted to be a nurse, even when you were just a little girl. Your Dad and I are very proud of you for getting up and trying again when you STUMBLED — Life is not an easy road, and has many ups and downs. At Mercy, you not only trained to be a nurse, you have matured and learned to travel both of these roads. Congratulations, we love you, and we are very PROUD to have two nurses in our family. Love, Mom, Dad, Leslie, and Wayne	Good Luck Kim! Love, Daddy, Mama, and Greta.
